

NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program Panel

Tuesday, October 12, 2010

Smith Seminar Room, 1080 Physics Research Building

2:00-3:00pm

Hosted by the Center for Emergent Materials

Information will be provided for other upcoming fellowship opportunities in addition to the NSF Fellowship Program

What the panel offers

Advice from 3 current NSF Graduate Research Fellows and a Faculty member who has reviewed Fellowship applications
Application preparation tips: what to include and what to avoid when you finalize your application packet.
Additional places to seek support for the application process

Who should attend

Anyone pursuing or who has recently completed a BS/BA degree in a science, math or engineering field

Juniors who are considering applying for graduate school

Seniors who are considering applying for graduate school

Early Career Graduate Students in their first year or the first quarter of their second year and have not completed more than 12 months of full-time graduate study

What the NSF Fellowship Entails

Three years of support
$30,000 Stipend per year
$10,500 Educational allowance to institution
International research opportunities
Supercomputer access

Eligibility

U.S. citizens and permanent residents
Early-career students
Pursuing research-based MS and PhD

Please RSVP to mcombs.75@osu.edu

